

Remembrance Day book.

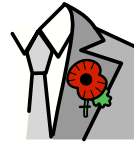

People

may choose

to wear poppies

in November.

This is to remember

the

who have

died

wars.

After 4  years of fighting the  first world war  ended in 1918 1800000   died in that  war.

Poppies

in the battle

scarred

fields

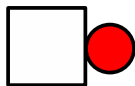

of France

and

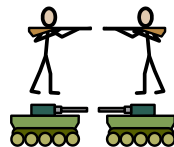

Belgium

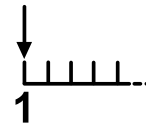

after

battles

of the first

world war

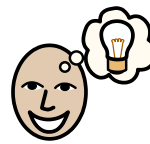

A soldier

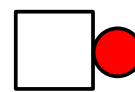

John McCrae

was inspired

by

sight

of

poppies

write

a

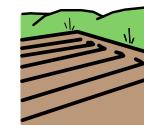

poem

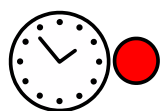

called

'In Flanders

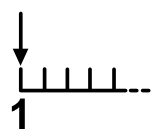

Fields'.

First

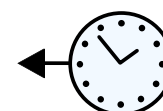

World War,

poppy

adopted as a symbol of Remembrance.

Every year on the 11th of november politicians, the royal family and veterans lay wreaths at the Cenotaph in London.
